Legal fees: Most legal services are free of charge. All clients are responsible for filing fees, court costs, and other related expenses.

What does the application fee cover and why is it nonrefundable? Upon receipt of an application, a staff attorney and paralegal reviews the application, creates a file, answers initial application questions, conducts a conflict of interest analysis, determines additional information required, requests the additional information, and follows up on those requests. The fee is nonrefundable because Community Law Center conducts these activities even if a client later decides not to pursue a case, finds another attorney, or on the rare occasion when Community Law Center cannot locate an attorney to represent the organization.

The application fee is not meant to be a barrier to legal representation. If your existing organization cannot afford the full application fee, a reduced fee may be considered in limited circumstances.*
